

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

ELOISE PEPION COBELL, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

GALE NORTON, Secretary of the Interior, et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action Number 96-1285 (RCL)

FILED

DEC 06 2001

THOMAS M. WHITTINGTON, CLERK
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Upon consideration of plaintiffs' Motion for Order to Show Cause Why Secretary Norton, Her Employees, and Counsel Should Not Be Held in Contempt, filed May 17, 2001, as renewed in a filing on November 16, 2001, and the record herein, plaintiffs' motions are GRANTED as to the Interior defendants in their official capacities only, and are otherwise DEFERRED.

By order filed November 28, 2001, the Interior defendants were ordered to show cause why they should not be held in civil contempt of court in their official capacities for four items. A fifth item is hereby added, and the November 28, 2001, order is hereby supplemented to require these defendants to show cause as to:

5. Committing a fraud on the Court by making false and misleading representations starting in March, 2000, regarding computer security of IIM trust data.

SO ORDERED.

Date: 12-6-01

Royce C. Lamberth
United States District Judge